Institutional Architecture

A framework for understanding and strengthening a country's capacity to undertake transparent, inclusive, predictable, and evidence-based policy change 1.1. Clearly Defined and Consistent Policy Framework 1.2. Transparency of the Policy Making Process 1.3. Clearly Defined Institutional Responsibilities Guiding Policy Framework 2.1. Policy Agenda and Priorities 2.2. Established Policy Process with Dedicated Resources 2.3. Coordination Process Policy Development 2.4. Technical Capacity & Coordination 2.5. Political Will 3.1 Inclusive Participation in Policy Process Inclusivity & Stakeholder 3.2. Accessible Policy Information Engagement 3.3. Multi-level, Equitable Stakeholder Participation 3.4. Depth and Impact of Participation Policy Systems Change Evidence-Informed 4.1. Evidence Generated in a Timely Manner PolicyMaking 4.2. Quality Data is Available, Accessible, and Trustworthy 4.3. Evidence Regularly Incorporated into Policy Decisions 4.4. Capacity to Generate and Use Quality Evidence Policy Implementation 5.1. Implementation Plans Developed 5.2. Implementation Capacity 5.3. Resources Committed by Host Country 5.4. Transparent Policy Implementation 5.5. Monitoring/Evaluation Design and Implementation Mutual Accountability 6.1. Government Accountability 6.2. Donor Coordination and Collaboration 6.3. Private Sector Accountability 6.4. CSO Sector Accountability

